

Maha's Mediation Schedule

Maha mediates for at least two (2) hours at $75/hour per party, or $150/party for 2 hours if you are Court-ordered to mediate. For private mediation (without a court order), her rate is $225/hour, typically split between the parties.

Each session is a minimum of two (2) hours. If needed, you can request an extended session—just ask us if Maha has additional availability that day. If both parties agree, they may schedule additional mediation sessions. Availability is on a first-come, first-served basis, so please book early.

To schedule, first confirm three (3) possible dates and times with the other party (and their lawyer, if applicable). Then email us at info@coloradofamilylawproject.com, including the opposing party (or their lawyer) in the CC field. Please let us know of any protection orders.

Once scheduled, we will send you a Mediation Agreement and a retainer payment request. Both parties must sign the agreement and submit payment at least 10 days before the session, or the mediation will be canceled and the time slot released to another case.
